

As a brand new applicant, you will need to register for the first time on our website.

Click the 'register' option. See below:

An online account confirmation has been sent to the email address you provided. It should arrive within a few minutes. If you have not received this within 15 minutes, please check your junk mail folders. To continue with your application to New College Lanarkshire, you must click on the link provided within this email. If you have entered an incorrect email address please try registering again. If you encounter further problems, please contact our Admissions team on 0300 555 80 80.

Click the registration link. You will be asked to provide and confirm a password for your account and then click the 'register' button.

